White wins if Odin can reach one of the corner squares; black wins if it surrounds Odin on all 4 sides.

The white team has a total of 13 pieces, the most important one being Odin the King, who starts in the centre of the 10x10 board and moves in the same way as a chess King, whereas black has 20 pawns and four other pieces.. <http://bit.ly/32e9bBiMirror> >>> <http://bit.ly/32e9bBiAboutThisGame>A version of an old Norse board game called King's Table.. The game has black and white teams, like chess, but each team has different pieces and a different raison d'etre.. The specials are chosen from the selection at the start of the game, and have a variety of abilities, some 'borrowed' from chess.

But I enjoyed the game and appreciate having a Battle Chess version of this ancient game as well.. I look forward to trying it more I would recommend this for those interested in games like Battle Chess that don't mind the aged graphics and it running in Dosbox. But I enjoyed the game and appreciate having a Battle Chess version of this ancient game as well.. This is to the ancient game HnefTafel what Battle Chess is to Chess It gives a game played like HnefTafel with some variations on what you choose for special pieces, table, etc, but gives you little animated battles between the pieces.. However it is from the same time period as the original Battle Chess so very pixelated and at times difficult to see clearly on a modern screen.. However it is from the same time period as the original Battle Chess so very pixelated and at times difficult to see clearly on a modern screen.. The presentation of this interpretation is similar to Battle Chess, with bold 3D graphics and lots of animation..
